Yakama Nation Fisheries is seeking proposals from qualified engineering firms to award a design and engineering services contract in support of salmon habitat restoration activities taking place in the Mad River in Chelan County, Washington. Based upon the proposals received under this solicitation the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation will award a design contract to the best quality bidder for the Scope of Work described within this RFP.

Project Background

The Yakama Nation Fisheries is working with several private landowners to conduct a large scale salmon habitat project along the Mad River between river miles 0.0-0.3 (Mad River Confluence Project Area). In 2021 Yakama Nation Fisheries completed a rapid site assessment of the project area and produced a very limited set of conceptual plans based upon professional judgement and communication with landowners. No detailed topological survey or hydraulic model was completed to support the concepts proposed in the 2021 technical memo. The 2021 Mad River Confluence Concepts Memorandum is available to review on the RFP webpage at:

<https://yakamafish-nsn.gov/restore/projects/engineering-design-rfp-mad-river-confluence-conceptual-design>

The 2021 investigation identified that opportunities exist for floodplain reconnection, side channel enhancement, stream bank restoration, instream large wood enhancements and conversion of a concrete irrigation surface diversion to a subsurface groundwater well. The design contract awarded through this RFP will provide engineering services to Yakama Nation Fisheries to incorporate hydraulic modeling and Professional Engineer design into the habitat restoration concepts for the Mad River Confluence Project Area.

Project Location Map

(Note that project work for this RFP ranges from river mile 0.0-0.3.)

Proposed Scope of Work

Phase 1 – Site Investigation

Task 1 – Existing Data Review

The contractor will review existing data to be provided by the Yakama Nation Fisheries or any other private or government entity that would aid future analysis and design. It is assumed that this data may consist of fish habitat survey, stream flow data, historical aerial photos and existing designs.

Task 2 – Geomorphic Field Investigation and Site Survey

To gain a perspective of river process, including fluvial geomorphology and sediment continuity, the river will be walked within the site boundaries and sufficient distances up and downstream to gain a reach level understanding of conditions. Air photos will be used during this investigation. An overview of reach conditions will be documented with general field notes and photos. Existing riparian vegetative composition will be noted including species and elevations with respect to the stream. During the geomorphic walk through future hydraulic cross sections will be identified and marked on maps and in the field to inform the topographic survey.

Stream substrate size at the project locations will be documented by collection of pebble counts. Pebble count locations of representative bed load materials will be determined in the field. The data will be used in future design considerations of sediment continuity and stream stability design.

Topographic survey will be completed on all lands from which ownership permission can be obtained by the Yakama Nation. Topographic survey will be conducted using a total station or survey grade GPS to collect survey data required for hydraulic analysis, conceptual designs and drawings. LIDAR data may be used in floodplain areas to complete hydraulic cross sections where appropriate. Sufficient cross section, profile, and floodplain data will be completed to be useful in developing both 1 and 2 dimensional reach level hydraulic models. Survey will be based on an existing horizontal and vertical datum if readily available. Temporary bench marks using wooden hubs will be established for future reference during later design and construction phases. The location of infrastructural elements such as riprap, levees, bridges, irrigation diversions, well heads, power lines, building foundations, campsites, roads, and/or other such elements shall be surveyed.

When design direction is known and agreed upon with Yakama Nation Fisheries staff, additional survey necessary for project feasibility analysis may be completed. Pump tests, piezometer data and subsurface test pit information will be collected to inform the conceptual design effort.

All field and survey data will be downloaded into and summarized in appropriate software (i.e. Excel, AutoCAD).

Assumptions:

- Consent for access will be provided
- Stream flows will be low enough to wade safely.

Task 3 – Hydrology

Peak stream flow frequencies will be estimated or obtained from previous BOR, Yakama Nation, and/or USGS documentation, or developed using available gage data and published regression equations appropriate for the site.

Task 4 – Hydraulic Analysis

Hydraulic conditions will be modeled using both 1 dimensional and 2 dimensional models. Site survey collected in Task 2 will be used to build an existing conditions model. Manning's n values will be estimated from reference literature, professional experience and opinion. In support of the alternatives analysis and design tasks, the existing conditions model will be copied and modified to predict project effects on hydraulic condition.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineer's one-dimensional HEC-RAS hydraulic model will be used to consider and certify FEMA flood impacts and rise implications. Two-dimensional modeling will be used to estimate surface flow behaviors at various stream discharges, including analyzing for changes in flow direction, sheer stress, and bed mobility based on the proposed conditions.

Phase 2 – Concept Development

Task 5 – Development of Conceptual Report and Drawings

Based on Site Investigation findings, the contractor will provide restoration/enhancement strategies and options to improve adult and juvenile salmonid habitats at a range of discharges and including seasonal low flow river stages. Restoration strategies shall be developed with consideration of the 2017 and 2021 UCRTT Biological Strategy and the 2019 Mad River Reach Assessment. The contractor will work closely with Yakama Nation UCHRP staff to ensure restoration designs address top priority ecological concerns in the project reach.

Task deliverables will include a robust report of findings from Phases 1 and 2, drawing set of conceptual restoration designs, planning estimates, and a power point presentation for stakeholder meetings. The conceptual report will be compiled in a manner consistent with BPA's Habitat Improvement Program General Project and Data Summary Requirements.

Task 6 – Stakeholder Meetings and Communications

During and following the conceptual report completion, the contractor will present project findings to landowners and agency stakeholders. Presentations will focus on existing river processes, future trends, project benefits, relative project costs, project risks, and other topics requested by Yakama Nation Fisheries staff. It is estimated that up to three stakeholder meetings will be conducted under this contract.

(b) Immaterial Changes. The Yakama Nation’s Project Manager may authorize immaterial changes in writing. Immaterial changes are those that concern how the Work will be accomplished, but do not change the scope of what Work will be performed, or the overall contract payment amount.

10.11 Amendments; Waiver. The parties may amend this agreement by a written instrument signed by the authorized representatives of both parties. No waiver of a right or obligation under this agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the party granting the waiver. All other terms shall remain in full force and effect; and, to the extent permitted and possible, the invalid or unenforceable term shall be deemed replaced by a term that is valid and enforceable that comes closest to expressing the parties’ original intention.

10.15 Sovereign Immunity. In entering into this agreement, the Yakama Nation is not waiving its sovereign immunity from suit, and is not waiving, altering, or otherwise diminishing its rights, privileges, remedies, or services guaranteed by the U.S. Treaty with the Yakamas of June 9, 1855.

10.16 Special Terms & Conditions. In addition to the forgoing terms and conditions, the following requirements will apply to this Agreement:

(a) Consultant's Work under this agreement is being funded under Intergovernmental Master Agreement 56662 ("IG-MA 56662"), as amended, between the Bonneville Power Administration (hereafter "BPA") and the Yakama Nation, and its applicable funding release ("Release"). Consultant acknowledges that Yakama Nation's obligation to compensate Consultant for Work performed under this agreement is entirely dependent and conditioned upon such funds being made available to the Yakama Nation by BPA for this Work. Failure of BPA to provide such funding within the contract term shall void this Agreement and Consultant shall have no cause of action against the Yakama Nation.

(b) Consultant shall comply with any and all requirements applicable to subcontractors set forth in the IG-MA 56662 and any associated BPA funding Release(s). The IG-MA 56662 can be accessed using a web browser at the following address: <http://yakamafish-nsn.gov/restore/projects/bpa-master-agreement-terms-and-conditions>. When prompted, enter "YN Fish1855" as the webpage password to access the IG-MA 56662 and its modifying amendments. Consultant hereby states and certifies that it has read the Master Agreement and agrees to be bound by the applicable terms. Consultant further states that it has the capacity to comply with the Master Agreement's applicable terms. If Consultant is authorized under this Agreement to hire any subcontractors, Consultant shall ensure that their subcontracts include a requirement for compliance with these terms.

EXHIBIT A – SCOPE OF WORK

Overview and Background:

In coordination with several private landowners the Yakama Nation’s (YN) Upper Columbia Habitat Restoration Project (UHRP) is developing a salmon habitat restoration project along the Mad River in Chelan County, Washington between river miles 0.0-0.3. The UHRP recently conducted a reach assessment and rapid project site assessment that resulted in a very basic set of Conceptual Designs for this project area which will form the foundation of salmon habitat restoration designs moving forward. Identified restoration opportunities include floodplain reconnection, side channel enhancement, stream bank restoration, instream large wood enhancements and conversion of a concrete irrigation surface diversion to a subsurface groundwater well. This contract will provide engineering and design services to the UHRP to further develop a suite of conceptual salmon habitat restoration actions that can be used to coordinate future restoration activities with landowners, permitting agencies, and project funders.

Project Location

Scope of Work

At the direction of Yakama Nation Fisheries staff the Consultant shall perform the following work tasks:

Phase 1 – Site Investigation

Task 1 – Existing Data Review

The contractor will review existing data to be provided by the Yakama Nation Fisheries or any other private or government entity that would aid future analysis and design. It is assumed that this data may consist of fish habitat survey, stream flow data, historical aerial photos and existing designs.

Task 2 – Geomorphic Field Investigation and Site Survey

To gain a perspective of river process, including fluvial geomorphology and sediment continuity, the river will be walked within the site boundaries and sufficient distances up and downstream to gain a reach level understanding of conditions. Air photos will be used during this investigation. An overview of reach conditions will be documented with general field notes and photos. Existing riparian vegetative composition will be noted including species and elevations with respect to the stream. During the geomorphic walk through future hydraulic cross sections will be identified and marked on maps and in the field to inform the topographic survey.

Stream substrate size at the project locations will be documented by collection of pebble counts. Pebble count locations of representative bed load materials will be determined in the field. The data will be used in future design considerations of sediment continuity and stream stability design.

Topographic survey will be completed on all lands from which ownership permission can be obtained by the Yakama Nation. Topographic survey will be conducted using a total station or survey grade GPS to collect survey data required for hydraulic analysis, conceptual designs and drawings. LIDAR data may be used in floodplain areas to complete hydraulic cross sections where appropriate. Sufficient cross section, profile, and floodplain data will be completed to be useful in developing both 1 and 2 dimensional reach level hydraulic models. Survey will be based on an existing horizontal and vertical datum if readily available. Temporary bench marks using wooden hubs will be established for future reference during later design and construction phases. The location of infrastructural elements such as riprap, levees, bridges, irrigation diversions, well heads, power lines, building foundations, campsites, roads, and/or other such elements shall be surveyed.

When design direction is known and agreed upon with Yakama Nation Fisheries staff, additional survey necessary for project feasibility analysis may be completed. Pump tests, piezometer data and subsurface test pit information will be collected to inform the conceptual design effort.

All field and survey data will be downloaded into and summarized in appropriate software (i.e. Excel, AutoCAD).

Assumptions:

- Consent for access will be provided
- Stream flows will be low enough to wade safely.

Task 3 – Hydrology

Peak stream flow frequencies will be estimated or obtained from previous BOR, Yakama Nation, and/or USGS documentation, or developed using available gage data and published regression equations appropriate for the site.

Task 4 – Hydraulic Analysis

Hydraulic conditions will be modeled using both 1 dimensional and 2 dimensional models. Site survey collected in Task 2 will be used to build an existing conditions model. Manning's n values will be estimated from reference literature, professional experience and opinion. In support of the alternatives analysis and design tasks, the existing conditions model will be copied and modified to predict project effects on hydraulic condition.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineer's one-dimensional HEC-RAS hydraulic model will be used to consider and certify FEMA flood impacts and rise implications. Two-dimensional modeling will be used to estimate surface flow behaviors at various stream discharges, including analyzing for changes in flow direction, shear stress, and bed mobility based on the proposed conditions.

Phase 2 – Concept Development

Task 5 – Development of Conceptual Report and Drawings

Based on Site Investigation findings, the contractor will provide restoration/enhancement strategies and options to improve adult and juvenile salmonid habitats at a range of discharges and including seasonal low flow river stages. Restoration strategies shall be developed with consideration of the 2017 and 2021 UCRTT Biological Strategy and the 2019 Mad River Reach Assessment. The contractor will work closely with Yakama Nation UCHRP staff to ensure restoration designs address top priority ecological concerns in the project reach.

Task deliverables will include a robust report of findings from Phases 1 and 2, drawing set of conceptual restoration designs, planning estimates, and a power point presentation for stakeholder meetings. The conceptual report will be compiled in a manner consistent with BPA's Habitat Improvement Program General Project and Data Summary Requirements.

Task 6 – Stakeholder Meetings and Communications

During and following the conceptual report completion, the contractor will present project findings to landowners and agency stakeholders. Presentations will focus on existing river processes, future trends, project benefits, relative project costs, project risks, and other topics requested by Yakama Nation Fisheries staff. It is estimated that up to three stakeholder meetings will be conducted under this contract.

Consistent Satisfactory Progress

Consistent satisfactory progress in this project will be required. Satisfactory progress will be measured by both the quality and quantity of work. If for any reason no work is performed, the Consultant may be given a notice of contract cancellation. Consistent satisfactory progress will also be determined by the Consultant's demonstrated ability to perform all work tasks described in the Scope of Work. If it appears that the Consultant is unable to complete the project tasks the Consultant may be given a notice of contract cancellation. The Yakama Nation's designated representative will monitor progress closely.
